
@SURYA VAJPEYI

WHY DO YOU THINK YOU ARE THE RIGHT CANDIDATE FOR THE JOB?

ACE YOUR INTERVIEWS

ANSWER TIPS

DO'S AND DONT'S

Keep your answer concise.

Describe outcomes of your past roles

Mention any skills you have that are rare or unique.

Keep your focus on how you can help the organization.

Avoid offering a memorized answer.

Don't compare yourself to others.

Don't be too overpromising or overconfident

Don't undermine or underestimate yourself

“

The skills and qualifications I possess are a great match for the requirements for this position. In particular, my communication and leadership skills make me a great candidate for the job. In my previous job, I oversaw a team of 10 employees and created a new communication system that increased productivity by 15% over the course of three months. I'm confident that I can bring this type of success to this position.

“

I am a self-motivated person who is willing to go above and beyond on any project, and to learn valuable skills on my own time. For example, I taught myself five computer programming languages in college, simply out of a passion to learn how to code. I know you are looking for a self-motivated computer technician with both skills and passion, and I am that person.

“

I learned that your company has struggled in the past to set up effective communication systems and you are looking for a strong communicator to make your brand stand out from the competition. In my previous role, I exhibited strong active listening and people skills which is why I was made in charge of handling all stakeholder communications. I'd love to use all my abilities and drive to provide value to your organization.

@SURYA VAJPEYI